FROM THE MANAGER'S DESK

This is the day on which the thoughts of 32 clubs, in varying degrees of seriousness, centre on Hampden Park in April and the Scottish Cup final. Like the 31 other clubs, Celtic have their hopes in this connection. Unlike some of the strong First Division teams, however, we are strongly fancied to reach at least the second round. There are several very attractive first round ties, the outcome of which will be that some of the best clubs in the top league will make an early exit from the competition.

Celtic have been lucky in getting a home draw. But although our opponents, Arbroath, are from the Second Division they are much better than an average second-league club and we welcome them to Celtic Park as a team whom we shall have to treat with due respect.

Arbroath have been one of the most consistent teams in Division II for some years. This season they are second only to Morton in the league, and they have a splendid chance of promotion. Their manager, Albert Henderson, is one of the younger school of team bosses, who has moulded his players into a very useful side. They come here in the knowledge that there is absolutely no strain on them; they can play free from worry over probable defeat. The Arbroath players know that the Celtic team have much more to lose. The Celtic players also understand that, however, and if they maintain their recent form, Celtic's name will be in the second round ballot on Monday.

NEXT AT HOME

Our next home game—the only one in February for the first team if we do not have a Scottish Cup second round commitment at Celtic Park—will be against Dinamo Zagreb on Tuesday, February 7. This will give the players an opportunity of learning further about Yugoslav football and thus preparing themselves for the European Cup quarter-finals on March 1 and 8 against Vojvodina. Some of our lads played against Zagreb in the European Cup-winners' Cup in 1963. They recall that although Celtic won 3-0 at home they were beaten 2-1 in Yugoslavia in the return game.

We intend to vary our style somewhat in this game against Zagreb, but we want to assure everyone that it will not be at the risk of departing from our usual determination to play attacking football with the firm objective of winning. We think that we can still go out to score goals and by using slightly different methods make sure that the Yugoslavs do not go back to their own country able to inform Vojvodina accurately about our style of play.

Supporters' clubs registered at Celtic Park who wish to obtain tickets for the league game with Airdrie at Broomfield next Saturday should send a representative to Celtic Park between 9.30 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on Wednesday first. No application should be made by letter. Representatives will be able to uplift an allocation of tickets on Wednesday — an allocation which will be limited in accordance with the number of tickets given to Celtic by the home club.

Joe McBride, who has been on the verge of regaining full fitness, has most unfortunately had a setback. When we returned from Seamill Joe had some recurrence of the leg trouble that had been bothering him for some time. So we have decided to give him a fortnight's complete break from training in the hope that the rest will do him the world of good. The medical advice is that Joe could have played during the past few weeks and we have been assured that there is no cause for alarm.

There will be a Reserve League match with Airdrieonians on Thursday first at Celtic Park, kick-off 7.30 p.m. Putting this game forward by two days will enable us to have the pitch as trim as possible for the match with Dinamo Zagreb five days later.
